WHY JOIN ICGA?

Now, more than ever before, corn farmers need to stand together and stand up for what's right. The Iowa Corn Growers Association (ICGA) is committed to protecting what matters most: your farm. When it comes to agricultural issues that impact your farming operation, our influence is growing. We'll help you take a stand by lobbying at the state and federal levels on your behalf. With your membership investment, along with the support of nearly 7,500 other corn growers, ICGA will continue to create opportunities for your long-term profitability.

ICGA will stand with you in tough times.

We know that the single most important thing we can do for you is fight for and support sound policy development that impacts your family farm. Here are your ICGA 2019 policy priorities.

*Corporate contributions to a PAC are prohibited by law. Please send a check from a personal account. Any corporate contributions received will be deposited with the Iowa Corn Growers Association political education and administrative (PAC) fund. Contributions are not tax-deductible. No anonymous contributions or contributions in someone else's name can be accepted. Contributions are voluntary, and a member's rights are not affected nor will a member be favored or disadvantaged by reason of the amount of the contribution or a decision not to contribute. The Iowa Corn Growers Association PAC must use its best effort to obtain name, address, occupation, and employer for all contributors over $200. A six-member bipartisan committee of ICGA farmer-members administers the PAC fund.
